

KS1 Setting up a tuck shop at home

In addition to cupcake making activities and to consolidate children's maths learning about money, you could set up a tuck shop at home to help children to use their addition & subtraction skills in the context of using money. Every morning, your child could start with a £1 coin and choose from the selected items of snacks for the day. We have included number lines and number squares on the website to support their maths learning.

