

Kings Court Wellbeing Week Day 4

This week we have been looking at different ways that can make us feel happy and those around us.

Today we would like you to do something amazing to help your adults at home.

Below I have added a link to a song that was sung to me when I was younger.

Your challenge today is to think of something that you could do at home that would make your adult happy.

We look forward to you sharing what you did for your adults on class Dojo

Please click on the link and enjoy the song and maybe you can sing along with the lyrics below!

No Charge

Tammy Wynette

My little girl came up to me in the kitchen this evenin'
While I was fixin' supper
And she handed me a piece of paper she'd been writin' on
And after wipin' my hands on my apron
I read it, and this is what it said

For mowin' the yard, five dollars
For makin' my own bed this week, one dollar
Goin' to the store, fifty cents
Playin' with little sister, while you went to the store, twenty-five cents
Takin' out the trash, one dollar
Gettin' a good report card, five dollars
And for rakin' the yard, two dollars
Total owed, fourteen dollars and seventy-five cents

Well, I looked at her standin' there expectantly and a thousand memories flashed through my mind
And so I picked up the pen, and turnin' the paper over
This is what I wrote

For the nine months I carried you
Growin' inside me, no charge
For the nights I've sat up with you
Doctored you, prayed for you, no charge
For the toys, food and clothes
And for wiping your nose, there's no charge
When you add it all up
The full cost of my love is no charge

Well, when she finished readin'
She had great big old tears in her eyes and she looked up at me and said
"Mommy, I sure do love you"
Then she took the pen
And in great big letters
She wrote: "PAID IN FULL"

When you add it all up
The cost of real love is no charge
