A storm was blowing. Tall waves hit the boat. It rocked from side to side. Stan thought that the boat would sink. He felt scared. He was on a fishing trip with his dad. Stan loved sea fishing. They had caught a big fish. It was a tuna fish. It was the biggest fish he had ever caught. His dad had helped him land it. The fish was very heavy. His dad had taken a photo of Stan and the fish. Stan had been having a great time. Then the storm came. It was time to leave.

It took a long time to get home. Stan stood on deck with his dad. A small roof kept some of the rain off them. It was hard to see where they were going. His dad was a good sailor. He understood the sea. He kept the little boat chugging through the big waves. He wasn't afraid of the storm. He sang songs to make Stan feel better. The harbour came into sight. Stan's dad steered the boat towards it. Stan was happy to be home.

Dear Grandma,

I hope you are well. How is Grandad's poorly leg? Mum said that he needs a stick to help him walk. That sounds fun. I love sticks. Maybe grandad will let me use his?

Dad took me out on the boat yesterday. We went fishing. I caught a big fish. It was the biggest I have ever seen. Dad said it was called a tuna fish. He was proud of me. I have sent you a copy of the photo he took. Show it to Grandad please.

When are you coming to see me? I want you to take me to the beach. Grandad is great at building sandcastles. You can watch me swim. I am a good swimmer now. Mum says that she will buy the ice creams. I hope you can come soon.

Love you both so much,
Stan xxx

Dear Diary – Monday 27th June

The sun has been hot today. Grandma and Grandad have come to stay. We went to the beach. We made sandcastles. I swam in the sea. It was nice and cold. Mum bought us an ice cream. It was yummy. Grandad and I caught a crab in a rock pool. We put it in a bucket. We had a good look at it. The crab looked angry. We put it back in the water. Today has been a good day.

Grandma and Grandad went home today. I was sad when they left. We drove them to the train station. I like looking at trains. We went onto the platform. The trains were big and noisy. Grandma and Grandad got on a big red train. Grandad pulled funny faces at me through the window. He makes me laugh. I hope they come again soon.
