A storm was blowing. Tall waves hit the boat and rocked it from side to side. Stan thought that the boat would sink. He was very scared. He was on a fishing trip with his dad because Stan loved sea fishing. He had caught a big fish. It was called a tuna fish and it was the biggest fish he had ever caught. His dad had helped him land it because the fish was so heavy. His dad had taken a photo of Stan and the fish. Stan had been having a great time until the storm came. It was time to leave and head for the safety of the harbour.

It took a long time to get home. It was going to be dark soon. Stan stood on deck with his dad. A small roof kept some of the rain off them but they were still soaking. It was hard to see where they were going but his dad knew what to do. He was a good sailor who understood the sea. He kept the little boat chugging through the big waves. His dad wasn't afraid of the storm. Not like Stan. He sang songs to make Stan feel better. The harbour soon came into sight. Stan's dad steered the boat towards safety. Stan was very happy to be home.

Dear Grandma,

I hope you are well. How is Grandad's sore leg? Mum said that he needs a stick to help him walk. That sounds like great fun. I love sticks. Maybe Grandad will let me use his?

Dad took me out on the boat yesterday. We went fishing and I caught a really big fish. It was the biggest fish I've ever seen. Dad said it was called a tuna fish. He was very proud of me. I've sent you a copy of the photo he took. Show it to Grandad for me please. Is it bigger than the one he caught?

When are you coming to see me? If the weather is good, I'd love for you to take me to the beach. Grandad is great at building sandcastles. You can watch me swim. I'm a really good swimmer now because I have lessons every week. Mum says that she will buy the ice creams. I hope you can come soon.

Love you both so much,

Stan xxx

Dear Diary – Monday 27th June

The sun has been very hot today. Grandma and Grandad have come to stay so we went to the beach. We made sandcastles and I swam in the sea. The sea was nice and cold. Mum bought us all an ice cream. It was yummy. Grandad and I caught a crab in a rock pool. We put it in a bucket so we could have a good look at it. The crab looked very angry so we put it back in the water. I really enjoyed our visit to the beach.

Grandma and Grandad went home today. I was so sad when they left. We drove them to the train station. I like looking at trains so we went onto the platform. The trains were big and noisy so Mum took hold of my hand. I think she was a little bit scared! Grandma and Grandad got on a big red train. Grandad pulled funny faces at me through the window. He makes me laugh. I hope they come again soon.
